

Thong Throwing Competition

Thong throwing is a noble sport believed to have stemmed from the convict era.

Back then, convict players would throw their thongs at the guards. If they managed to score a direct hit to the head they'd be crowned the ultimate thong throwing champion (and spend a year in solitary confinement).

Nowadays, thong throwing has been modernised for events and parties.

The aim of the game is to score as many points as you can by throwing the thong at a rubbish bin. The person with the highest score wins.

What you need

- ▶ A thong for throwing
- ▶ Something to mark a line where players throw from, such as masking tape
- ▶ Empty rubbish bin/s (as many as you like depending on how complex you want your game)
- ▶ Someone to umpire and record each player's scores

How to play

1. Place your bin/s at different distances from the marked throwing area.
2. Allocate points to each bin and consider giving half-points if a player hits the outside of the bin, but the thong doesn't go in.
3. Each player gets five consecutive throws of the thong on their turn.
4. Each time a player gets their thong into a bin (or hits the bin) their score is recorded.
5. After a player has had their five throws, their score is tallied.
6. When each player has had their turn, scores are compared and the person with the highest score is crowned the Modern Day Ultimate Thong Throwing Champion (and no solitary confinement this time!).
7. Umpire announces winner and awards prize.
