ABOUT THE NADC

The core mission of the National Australia Day Council (NADC) is to actively promote our national day to all Australians with a view to inspire national pride and unity through participation and engagement across all sectors of the community.

The NADC is a not-for-profit national body and a Commonwealth owned company limited by guarantee based in Canberra. The NADC is part of the Australia Day National Network (Network). The Network is an affiliate group of State/Territory organisations working with the national body to facilitate the celebration of Australia Day and being Australian, and recognise inspirational Australians through the Australian of the Year Awards.

The NADC strives for continual improvement in our existing core programs:

- The celebration of Australia Day
- The Australian of the Year Awards
- Citizenship and civic values programs

The NADC continually explores all appropriate opportunities to expand our programs and play a more influential role in discussions relevant to our purpose and mission.

WE VALUE OUR PEOPLE

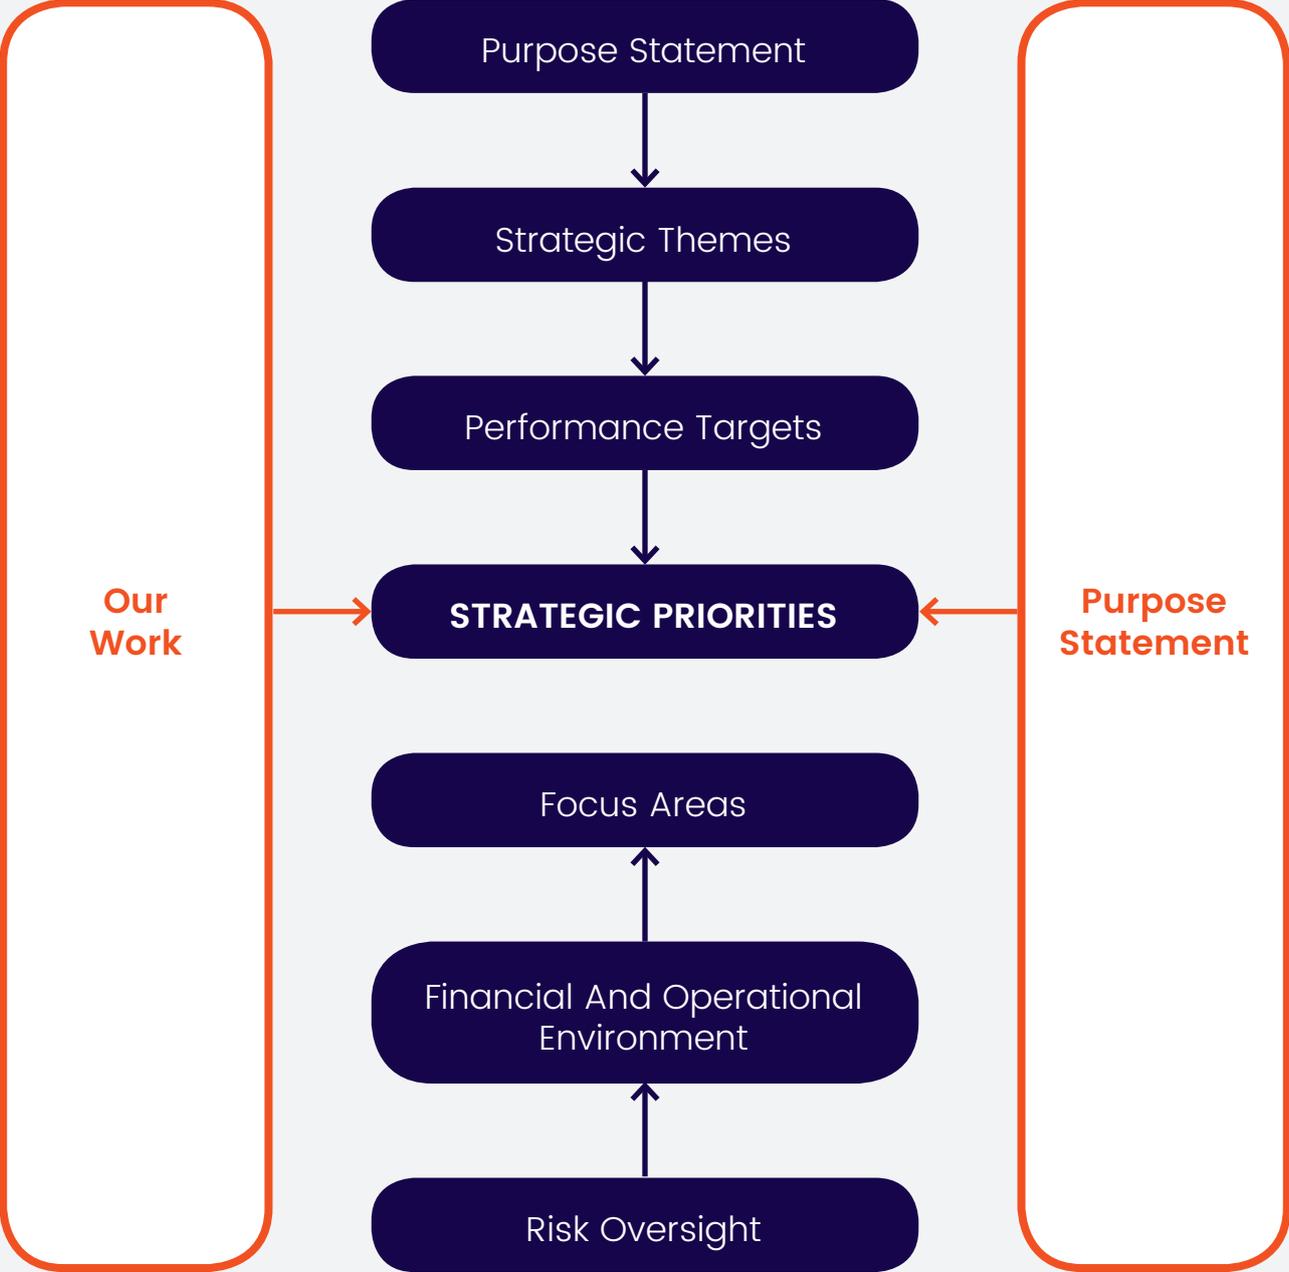

The NADC provides an encouraging, supportive and equitable environment for all employees to ensure the fulfilment of individual roles and responsibilities which underpin the achievement of the overall NADC purpose and mission.

The NADC encourages its employees to be high performing, innovative and to take personal responsibility for achieving results with a focus on:

Collaboration;
Respect; and Accountability.

The NADC prides itself on motivating and rewarding employees through recognising their value and contribution.

CORPORATE PLANNING FRAMEWORK

OUR ENVIRONMENT

The NADC operates under the legislative framework of the PGPA Act and the Corporations Act 2001. The NADC is a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee and the objectives and powers are defined through its Constitution.

The operations of the NADC are overseen by a Board. The Board has the power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, the performance of its functions. The Board is responsible under its charter to the Government for the overall strategy, governance and performance of the NADC.

The day to day operations of the NADC are managed by the Chief Executive.

The NADC operates in an environment where the expectation is that all its programs will be undertaken in an effective and efficient manner; where careful financial management and budgeting is critical to success; and where governance and risk is continually assessed.

The NADC annually receives just over $6 million total funding from Government and sponsors (in cash and contra arrangements). Continuous improvement is integral to our operations. We therefore continually review our programs to ensure they are efficiently managed. Our financial results and operations are regularly reported to our Finance Audit and Risk Management Committee and Board and made public through our Annual Report.

Risk Management

Our risk management processes play an important role in ensuring the ongoing success of the NADC.

The NADC considers that it must maintain appropriate systems of risk oversight, management and internal controls in order to build a strong risk management culture. The NADC maintains an overarching risk management plan and assesses risks for all main programs.

Performance, Planning and Reporting

We have an integrated planning, budgeting and reporting process aligned to our Corporate Plan.

The NADC strives for excellence in everything we do. Our performance is regularly assessed through:

Board and Government Reporting

The NADC regularly assesses its operations and reports the results to the NADC Board and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet.

Annual Report

The operations of the NADC are formally reported every year. This includes the annual financial statement audit conducted by the Australian National Audit Office (ANAO).

Assessment against Business Plans

The NADC prepares business plans for each core program and conducts regular assessments against these plans.

OUR VALUES

The NADC values transparency, integrity, accountability, collaboration, excellence, trust and respect in everything we do.
